JUDGE MEE PASSES AWAY.

The Well-Known Attorney Expires After a Long Illness.

The death is recorded yesterday of Judge James Mee, the well-known attorney, who expired at his residence on Broadway after an illness of some months' duration. The deceased came to California in the early fifties and became engaged in mining, the gold excitement being then at its height. Mr. Mee also occupied himself in agricultural pursuits with considerable success.

In 1862 he settled in San Francisco and addressed himself to the study and practice of the law, toward which his early tastes inclined him. He continued to practice law until a few years ago, when failing health drove him to retire from active business.

Mr. Mee was a thorough man of affairs, shrewd, bright and rich in experiences of value. He had a wide circle of friends, and his intimates held his opinion in high esteem. He was a native of Ireland, aged 65 years.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 9 A. M. from St. Bridget's Church, corner Van Ness avenue and Broadway.
